March 16 1711 he enters the Donostiales. Finally the Old Town of Donostia at the height of the Basque culture, especially in the late 17th century.

March 17 1711 he leaves Donostial, then travels through the countryside, visiting various villages and towns along the way. The map shows the route he took, with key locations marked.

April 22 1711 he arrives at Forni where he anchored. April 23 1711 he arrives at Villareal where he anchored. April 24 1711 he leaves Forni. April 25 1711 he leaves Villareal. May 7 1711 he leaves Forni. May 8 1711 he arrives at Rhodes. May 11 1711 he arrives at Alexandria in Egypt.

The map also includes various landmarks and historical sites, such as Colone de Pompei, Pompeii's Pillar, Alexandria with its library, and Carthage. It provides a visual representation of the historical routes taken by the map's subject.

Göran Björkman, gbg@baeheim.net, Göteborgs Stad, Sweden. Tel: +46-8-3195715 Mobile: 1858380940 (<gorian.bjorkman.net>